PADI MEMBER TRANSFER REQUEST

Instructions
To avoid delays, please read and complete all 5 steps.

If you will be residing and teaching PADI sanctioned courses in a country serviced by another PADI office, for a period of six months or longer, it will be necessary for you to transfer your PADI Membership to that office. Please see page 4 for the list of PADI offices and the territories they service.

Please complete this form and provide all information requested. Any necessary information not included may result in a processing delay of your transfer. This process must be completed before you begin teaching in the new country. You will receive notification and information once your transfer is completed.

PADI Membership Agreement

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY – Sign statement on renewal application

Renewal and continued membership is partially based upon your reading and signing this Agreement. PADI will consider renewal of your membership subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. I will abide by all PADI Standards and Procedures as published in the PADI Instructor Manual and Training Bulletin and other updates, within the capacity of my current classification, when conducting PADI programs, and will not deviate from them when representing myself as a PADI Member.
2. I have made myself knowledgeable about the latest PADI Standards and Procedures by reading the Training Bulletin and related publications. I have become familiar with PADI educational materials and am knowledgeable of any revisions to such materials and the introduction of new materials.
3. I am aware of the fact that scuba diving can seriously affect a person's health and life. I agree to omit from certification any student who does not meet all the prerequisites and performance requirements specified for the respective level of certification.
4. I understand and agree that any false reports of standards violations deemed by the Quality Management Committee to have been made for competitive, political or financial reasons shall be grounds for Quality Assurance action.
5. I am aware of the Quality Assurance Report Form that may be filed with PADI. I am further aware of the recourse available to me through the PADI Quality Assurance process to refute any complaints that may be reported. I understand and agree that all rulings by the Quality Management Committee with regard to such complaints shall be deemed binding.
6. I understand and agree that PADI may notify other certifying organizations should a PADI Member be required by the Quality Management Committee to undergo instructor-level retraining. I further understand that the names of suspended and expelled members will be published in The Undersea Journal and on PADI's web site.
7. I understand and agree that all members (individuals, dive centers and resorts) involved in the training of a particular student, as determined by the student's certification records at PADI, are responsible for adherence to PADI Standards during the conduct of that training. The Quality Assurance Department will communicate with all involved members upon receipt of reports or any other information indicating possible violation of PADI Standards and Procedures.
8. I understand and agree that financial irresponsibility in dealings with PADI is grounds for membership suspension.
9. I will not discredit PADI nor cause any action that will create a liability to PADI. PADI will have the sole right to determine whether any actions are detrimental to PADI.
10. I will file a PADI Incident Report Form with PADI for any diving-related incident of which I am aware that may have harmed or potentially harmed myself or another individual.
11. I agree to provide PADI with true and correct student/participant contact information, including the student's proper mailing address, when I submit any certification authorization or participant registration (PIC envelope, application, or registration card/roster) to PADI. I understand such information shall be the property of both PADI and the submitting member.
12. I acknowledge that diving and diving instruction are physically strenuous activities and that it is my personal responsibility to maintain the necessary level of fitness in order to involve myself in diving instructional and supervisory activities. I also acknowledge that should my physical condition change, rendering me incapable of meeting the physical requirements of diving instruction and supervision, I will cease my instructional and supervisory activities until I am again capable and, if necessary, cleared by a diving medical examination performed by a licensed physician.
13. I understand and agree that the terms and conditions of this Agreement were effective and binding 1 January 1999 and for subsequent years of my membership with PADI. Should PADI modify this Agreement, I will be notified in writing of the changes prior to the next renewal.
14. I acknowledge that this Agreement does not intend to create an agency relationship between me and PADI. Except as otherwise provided in this Membership Agreement, PADI has no control over or involvement with my day-to-day operations and activities and bears no responsibility for the same.
15. I understand and agree that membership in PADI is granted at the sole discretion of PADI, based on its unilateral determination of several criteria including, but not limited to, whether acceptance and continuation of membership is in the best interest of PADI. Satisfaction of minimum requirements does not guarantee membership. Membership in PADI, at any level, may be revoked at any time.

Rev. 8/00

License Agreement

PADI Worldwide Corp. (a California corporation, hereinafter "PADI") has the right and authority to use and sublicense various marks owned by International PADI, Inc. (a California corporation). These marks include, but are not limited to, Professional Association of Diving Instructors, PADI, certain logotypes – including a diver placed on a world, a mark for The Undersea Journal, as well as other marks, including Specialty and Certification marks. PADI relies upon the foregoing marks to indicate the source of origin of its services, certifications and products, so that the public will be protected; and its instructors, Dive Centers, Resort Dive Operators, Dive Boat Operators, students and others associated with PADI will receive the highest-quality services and products pertaining to its business.

To provide its members with the ability to advertise, promote and indicate the source of origin of the PADI services, certifications and products they provide, PADI Members are hereby granted a license to use the foregoing marks on promotional materials only, specifically printed, film or video formats, and software, fixed media, such as floppy disks, hard drives or CD-ROM, or any interactive digital or broadcast media or methods, including, but not limited to, internet or World Wide Web Sites.

The license shall not extend to the provision of other printed materials, such as manuals, books, instructions, clothing or products or any other materials whether or not they are manufactured, sold, distributed or licensed to others by PADI.

This license extended by PADI shall only be with respect to (1.) Printed advertising and promotional materials, (newspaper and periodical advertisements, telephone-directory advertising, handbills and signs); (2.) Film and video format promotional materials such as television commercials, slide shows or promotional videos; and (3.) Software, fixed media, such as floppy disks, hard drives or CD-ROM, or any interactive digital or broadcast media or methods, including, but not limited to, internet or World Wide Web Sites; none of which shall include use on any item or product intended for resale. The word "PADI" ("padi") may not be used in internet domain names.

The foregoing license for advertising and promotional use shall in all respects follow the exact format, character, general appearance, type style, background and proportions of the marks originating from PADI. In no case shall the marks be combined with other marks, symbols, language or be in a format and appearance other than that actually used by PADI. The full trademark must be used; truncated or partial use of a mark is not authorized.

This license shall be personal to the individual member and shall be nontransferable, nondivisible and not capable of being sublicensed in any manner through any party.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, PADI shall have the sole right to disapprove of any promotional materials prepared and shall be the sole judge of the criteria of whether it meets the standard of this license agreement. To this end, any suggestions or requests by authorized members of the PADI staff as to the usage of the marks shall be complied with as soon as possible to avoid mistakes, deceptions, dilution or other problems that would be detrimental to the foregoing marks.

Regardless of the foregoing license, PADI shall have the right to institute and bring any suit or any other action necessary to protect its marks as to any person, firm or corporation now or prospectively using the marks or any similar marks, derivations, analogs, trade names, fanciful scripts or designs.

This license shall extend for the term of membership, which shall be terminated forthwith upon termination of the member's relationship with PADI.
